

Canadian Amateur Wrestling Association 2004 Olympic Head Coach Selection Policy

Selection Committee

The Head Coach for the 2004 Olympic Team will be selected by a five person committee consisting of the following individuals;

- Coaches Representative*
- Athletes' Representative (the Male Representative for both the Freestyle and Greco Roman Men's Team Positions and the Female Representative for the Women's Team Position)
- National Program Director
- CAWA Vice-President Technical
- CAWA President

* The Coaches Representative to the Selection Committee cannot be applying for the specific Olympic coaching position. In the event that the current Coaches Representative applies for the position, then the High Performance Coaches will elect a coaching representative for this committee.

There are three Head Coach positions; Men's Freestyle, Greco Roman, and Women's Team positions. In the event that Canada fails to qualify any wrestlers in a given discipline (Freestyle, Greco and Women), the related Head Coach selection will be nullified.

The selection must be ratified by the CAWA Executive Committee

PROCESS

Any coaches interested in applying for the Head Coach position should send a covering letter and coaching resume c/o The National Program Director, CAWA, Unit #7, 5370 Canotek Road, Gloucester, Ontario, K1J 9E6. The application deadline is February 1st, 2003.

QUALIFICATIONS

The Head Coach for the Olympic Teams should possess the following qualifications;

- certified NCCP Level 4
- significant experience and success at the international level (i.e. World Championships, Major Games)
- demonstrated ability to develop and monitor training programs of high performance athletes
- demonstrated ability to work cooperatively with athletes, coaches and other support staff
- excellent communication skills
- ability to motivate and encourage team building
- commitment to the 2003 World Team Program and 2004 Olympic Team Program, including the qualification events.